Alleged “Funeral Burglar” Charged With Two Burglaries

A man dubbed the “funeral burglar” is scheduled to be in court today to face charges of burglarizing homes while the victims attended funerals, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Brett Rogers (dob 11/3/73) faces two felony counts of first-degree residential burglary.

Arraignment is today in Department 100 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Van Nuys Branch. Case LA088252 was filed for warrant on April 25.

On March 7 and March 11, Rogers is charged with burglarizing homes on Greenfield Avenue in Los Angeles and Nagle Avenue in Sherman Oaks, prosecutors said.

If convicted as charged, the defendant faces a possible maximum sentence of more than seven years in state prison.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department, Van Nuys Station.
